Deliverables according to Terms of Requirements (TOR) (4.1 & 4.2)

Sl no	Deliverables	Schedule
1	Name of the database is used and its licensing information.	These deliverable will be provided while handover process of the system "Design a Web-portal for the Establishment of 20 Child Day Care centre project and develop a demo of Integrated Child Day Care centre Information Management Software for Ministry of Women and Children Affairs".
2	Which web application tool is used and its licensing indormation(three years/life time/open source etc.)
3	The documentation of source code.
4	The manual and installation guideline.
5	Details about software functional specification and information on how it is useful for the project (Basic structure).
6	Information on database connectivity along with suitable pictures depicting the flow of data.
7	Show that there is no inconsistency in the design if there is a sudden failure in the server or client system by explaining the relevent code.
8	Information about other programming languages on application involved in the assignment.
9	Prepare documents with screenshots and highlight the relevent code for the following:- - Information on the front end application - Information on database queries. - Information on database propertics and how they ensure data consistency and accuracy. - Detailed guide of running the software by using sample data in a logical order (Registration submission, Alert information, File approval etc.). - Input invalid data and show that is impossible to do so as you have done date validation at the front end and back end.
10	Licensing details of software
11	A static design of a web portal that features many of its final design elements
12	A software demo with sample data	